CHARITY DONATIONS RECEIVED AT SCHOOL Public Requested to Send Edibles Not Later Than Wednesday Morning.

A large number of contributions for the Christmas baskets to be distributed through the local charity organization on Christmas morning to the poor and needy families in the city has been received at the Shields high school building today. The donations so far have been made by the school children.

It is expected that the supply will be largely increased tomorrow and Wednesday morning and arrangements have been made to keep the school building open to receive the donations. Persons desiring to contribute edibles and have no way to deliver them should call the school building and they will be sent for. These in charge of the work expect to have a large number of baskets to deliver in the city on Christmas morning.

MRS. NANCY THOMAS DEAD

Death Due to Paralysis—Funeral
Wednesday Morning.

Mrs. Nancy Thomas, wife of James Thomas died at her home 678 South Walnut street this morning at 3 o'clock, after a lingering illness of about two years. The immediate cause of death was paralysis. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Tobias and was born near Crothersville and her age was 69 years. She has lived in Jackson county all of her life and has made her home in Seymour for some time. She was a member of the Uniontown Baptist church which she joined in young womanhood and has been a devoted christian and worker for many years. She leaves to remember her in love her husband, James Thomas, a son William M. and her daughter, Eva Leona. Charles E. died some years ago.

The funeral will be held Wednesday morning with a service of prayer at the home at 9:30 and a memorial service of sermon at the Uniontown Baptist church at 10:30 o'clock Rev. F. A. Hayward, of the First Baptist church of this city, will officiate.

ASPIRANTS FOR COUNTY OFFICES

Politics Expected to Open in Jackson County After First of Coming Year.

FIVE OFFICERS TO ELECT

Several Contemplating Getting On Ticket for The Primary to Be Held in May.

Politics in Jackson county are expected to open after January 1, according to leaders in both the Republican and Democrat parties and some men who have decided to enter the race for a county office before the primary election to be held next May are planning to announce soon after the first of the coming year.

According to reports from over the county several men are aspiring for the offices to be filled and are being encouraged to get into the race by their friends. Those announcing the first of the year will have practically four months to conduct their campaign before the primary election is held and in past years candidates have found it well to have as much time possible to tour the county in the interest of their candidacies.

The five offices to be filled at the next general election are auditor, treasurer, sheriff, assessor and one commissioner in place of John W. Beickman, of Brownstown, whose term expires January 1, 1921. A prosecuting attorney is to be elected in the judicial district composed of Jackson and Lawrence counties and a representative to congress from the Fourth congressional district.

It is predicted that Jackson county will have candidates for both the judicial and congressional offices to be filled. Party workers have been giving the matter some consideration during the last few weeks and it is known that several local men are being encouraged by their friends to make the race for the nomination for different county offices on the Republican or Democrat ticket.

Candidates who propose to canvass the county will in all possibility announce sometime during the month of January in order that they may have plenty of time to conduct their campaign.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS HOLD LAST MEETING OF THE YEAR

Contract for Printing and Supplies
Awarded to Burford Company of Indianapolis.

The county commissioners met in special session at the court house in Brownstown today to wind up business for the year. One of the most important matters up for their attention today was that of allowing all claims against the county for the year. The number of claims allowed today was exceptionally large as many small accounts had been carried for several months and an effort was made by the county auditor to have them all filed before the meeting today in order that all outstanding indebtedness could be cleaned up before the end of the year.

The commissioners this morning awarded the contract for printing and supplies to the Burford printing company of Indianapolis, it having offered the lowest and best bid. Several other matters were disposed of by the commissioners before they adjourned the session this afternoon.

FALSE REPORTS OF PROFITEERING

Gossip That Local Merchants Were Arrested by Government Agents is Unfounded.

ORIGIN OF TALK UNKNOWN

Shoppers are Finding That Merchandise is Sold At A Close Margin of Profit Here.

For several weeks rumors have been in circulation in the city and in surrounding towns and communities that several merchants were arrested by a government agent for profiteering. A thorough investigation proves that such talk is absolutely unfounded and those who continue to spread the gossip are doing an injustice to local business men who are said to have been caught in the government agent's trap.

When the reports first started a few weeks ago only the names of a few merchants were mentioned in the gossip. As time went on the talk incorporated a number of the most popular merchants in the city. All of the merchants who have heard their names mentioned in this connection have taken the matter more as a joke and paid no attention to it. However, the talk has extended out-

$2,000 APPROPRIATED BY COUNTY COUNCIL

Additional Amount Needed to Pay County's Expense For The Remainder of Year.

The members of the county council met at the court house in Brownstown this morning and appropriated $2,000 to meet the county's expense for the remainder of the year. Only one of the members of the council were absent from the meeting, J. F. Johnson, of Tappan being unable to attend.

The appropriation was made necessary as some of the offices did not have sufficient allotments to pay their expense to the first of January. The council members considered several other matters of importance while in session today.

CHILDREN WILL GET PEEK AT SANTA CLAUS' WORKSHOP

Majestic Theater Arranges Artistic Decorations Appropriate to Christmas Season.

Among the places in Seymour which have arranged special decorations for Christmas is the Majestic theater. Long strings of laurel, holly, red bud, Christmas bells and other yuletide decorations have been attractively arranged in the lobby and have attracted much attention.

The Majestic has also arranged a special feature for the children this week. The stage has been fitted up as Santa Claus' workshop and store room and many toys have been displayed. It is explained that Santa Claus is busy now and can not stay at his work shop all the time and it will be exhibited at each matinee and night performance, including Thursday. But as the children's patron saint is apt to return at any time the display cannot be long. A number of beautifully decorated cedar trees are arranged on the platform and other decorations add to the appearance of the Christmas scene. The workshop will be especially interesting to the children. The management announces that on Thursday afternoon Santa Claus will appear in person and will distribute a Christmas package to each child under twelve years of age. He will also be present Christmas night, but will not have time to make a distribution at that time.

A special program has been arranged for the present week. Miss Marjorie Miller, trap drummer, will take her position permanently with the orchestra today. The orchestra is to be enlarged from time to time during the coming few weeks, it is stated. The "Melody Four" will also be here this week. The members of this male quartet will furnish a varied program at each performance.

H.S. QUINTET WINS BY RECORD SCORE

Jeffersonville Basket Ball Team is Overwhelmed, 71 to 11, in Contest Saturday Night.

SECOND TEAM LOSES GAME

Freetown Wins, 19 to 15, by Hitting
Two Baskets During the Last
Two Minutes of Play.

The highest score of the basketball season and several seasons passed was made last Saturday night at the local gymnasium. S. H. S. easily defeating Jeffersonville high school, 71 to 11. The local second team fought hard to defeat the Freetown quintet but lost in the last two minutes of play, 19 to 1.

Although the down-state players have defeated many of the southern Indiana and northern Kentucky teams, they were completely outclassed by the local quintet. If the game with North Vernon the night before did other than to put "pep" in the local team it was entirely noticeable.

Jeffersonville displayed some excellent team work at times but the shooting and passing of the S. H. S. quintet was mechanical.

In the first half, the locals had a

KANSAS MINERS' CHIEFTAIN JAILED

William Howatt Refuses to Comply
With Order of Judge Anderson to Cancel Strike.

TRIAL SET FOR NEXT MONDAY

President of Missouri Miners' Union is Not Ordered to Appear in Court at Indianapolis.

By United Press

Indianapolis, December 22—Alexander Howatt, president of the Kansas miners' union, was sent to the Marion county jail this afternoon by Judge A. B. Anderson in federal court. He will appear in federal court Monday afternoon.

Judge Anderson told Howatt that he would order him jailed unless the strike of Kansas miners was called off immediately. "I will put you in the Marion county jail and keep you there," Judge Anderson told the defendant when he was instructed to withdraw the Kansas strike order. He was allowed time to comply with the order and to decide whether he would go to jail or have his freedom until next Monday when his case is to be called for trial.

"I am going to show you that there is some law in this country," said Judge Anderson. He told Howatt that unless he was assured this afternoon that the Kansas miners' strike would be called off immediately he would put him in jail. If Howatt had given the court assurance that the order would be obeyed he would have been allowed his freedom.

David Frampton, president of the Missouri miners' union, was not in court today. The judge received word that the Missouri miners were returning to work and Frampton's case was dropped.

Frampton had not been ordered to appear, but had announced that he would do so at the request of the court.

"ANARCHIST ARK" IS BOUND TO SOVIET RUSSIA

Reds and Other Radicals Deported—Passengers Carried Nearly $250,000 in Cash.

By United Press

New York, Dec. 22—Somewhere at sea the army transport Buford, informally christened the Anarchist Ark was steaming across the Atlantic today with 249 alien "Reds" aboard. Her destination was not revealed when she left port yesterday but it was known the human cargo eventually was to be landed in Soviet Russia.

The Buford was picked officers and crew sailed under secret orders. These were in possession of Col. Charles H. Hilton, representing the war department, who was to present them to the captain sometime today.

Chief among the deportees were Alexander Berkman and Emma Goldman, anarchist leaders. In the last hours before the party boarded a boat at Ellis Island for transfer to the Buford they organized the First Anarchist Commune Soviet. Some of the "Reds" openly welcomed the opportunity to return to Russia, but others, especially two men, obviously had little liking for the prospect. Some of them wept.

According to immigration authorities, the deportees carried cash amounting to nearly $250,000. Before the Buford sailed those who were not fully supplied with clothing received new outfits.

The "Ark", according to intimations by Federal authorities is only the first of several ships which will carry undescribable to Russia. Other groups rounded up in various parts of the country were reported to be enroute to New York to await deportation.

THE SOVIET ARC

The United States transport Buford, the oldest ship owned by this country sailed from the New York harbor early Sunday morning with 249 anarchists and reds who will be taken to soviet Russia. Among the passengers were Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, leaders in various movements to overthrow organized and constitutional government in the United States. Some of the passengers were defiant until the last. Others wept when the time came for them to step from American soil.

This is the largest deportation of anarchists ever made from this country. These people came to the United States from Russia to escape tyrannical rule and oppression. They failed to grasp the meaning of political independence. They accepted liberty and protection afforded them by this government and in return tried to destroy the very power that protected them. Among the passengers were many men who have worked in the steel mills of the United States and have been able to save from $20,000 to $40,000. This money they took with them. Some of the reds carried United States Liberty bonds. They recognized the value of the bonds but were willing to wreck the authority that made them valuable.

These people are a menace to any government. But they will soon be among other communists in soviet Russia. If they are given free reign there they will destroy Russia as they attempted to destroy America. The deportation of these "undesirables" should have an influence upon other radicals who would destroy our nation of liberty and freedom. The government took the right course in dealing with the Goldman-Berkman clique. We have some other transports that can be used in the same way in the future. American citizens will insist upon obedience to constituted authority, the authority which the people themselves have voted to accept.

CARRANZA AND OBREGON FIGHT FOR LEADERSHIP

Latter is Regarded as the Strongest Contender for the Mexican Presidency.

By United Press

Washington, Dec. 22—Open war fare between Carranza and General Obregon is threatened, according to unofficial advices from Mexico received today by government officers. Obregon is the strongest contender for the presidency. Carranza, the dispatches stated, is determined to retain control, even if he has to indefinitely postpone the national election scheduled in July. Obregon, apparently, is ready to take the field and start hostilities as soon as Carranza shows his hand.

CURBING AUTO THEFTS

Automobile thefts have become so frequent that the Hoosier Motor Club is striving to work a plan which will protect machines which have been stolen. Various methods have been tried in different states with varying success. The thefts are made by organized groups and the thieves themselves work through "fences." The Motor Club in this state proposes that the Indiana legislature pass a law which would require an abstract of title before any automobile sale will hold. Thieves, of course, would be unable to produce such an abstract except by fraudulent means. This requirement would not eliminate all automobile thefts, but undoubtedly it would make the sale of stolen machines more difficult. With the further improvement of main highways, auto thefts would be made easier as the get-away would be quicker. Conditions demand additional safeguards for the protection of pleasure cars and trucks.

The government probably hesitated whether to send Goldman and Berkman to soviet Russia or to the fifth congressional district in Wisconsin.

TROUBLE OF 15 YEARS IS GONE

Meritone Relieves Stomach Trouble After Fifteen Years of Suffering.

"I have tried for fifteen years to find a medicine that would help me, but Meritone is the first one that ever brought me any real benefits," said Mrs. W. H. Whitson, of 601 West Short Street, Lexington, Ky. "My stomach was all out of order," Mrs. Whitson continued. "Nothing I ate digested right and gas would form on my stomach and would pain me so that I just didn't know what I would do. My nerves were affected and kept getting worse until I finally got so that the least noise would excite me and I could hardly sleep at night."

"I tried everything without any relief and finally I decided to try Meritone as I had heard so many people praise it."

"Since taking Meritone my stomach is back in perfect order and I can eat anything and never have any trouble with my stomach any more. My nerves are much better and I sleep fine at night."

Meritone is highly recommended by thousands of people who have tried it and know its real value.

Meritone is sold exclusively in Seymour by Maxon's Pharmacy.

A. R. Enos' Bulletin

On November 29th I received a car load of the nationally advertised Purina Feeds, known everywhere by the checkerboard bags.

Contained in this car was the leading dairy feed known as Purina Cow-Chow a 24 percent Protein feed; Fatena the ideal steer fattener; Purina Pig-Chow a hog feed containing tankage in correct proportions; Purina Scratch feed and Purina Chicken-Chowder, the unsurpassed winter egg producing combination; and Purina Molasses Feed, the economical feed for horses.

I also have on hand a full supply of 16 percent Protein Dairy feed; Green Cross Molasses feed; Schumaker, the ideal pig feed; Corn feed meal; ground rye; Bull's Eye; Buckeye Mixed feed and Rydis Calf meal.

I also have two car loads of the well known "King Midas" and "Ariston's Special" flour, which are still priced at attractive prices.

Call and look over this the largest assortment of guaranteed feeds in Southern Indiana, and get my prices.

I am in the market at all times for all farm products at highest market prices, and will give the farmers a Square Deal at all times.

FINAL REPORT ON RED CROSS DRIVE

tricts, Mr. More said, as the memberships were taken without regard to districts and some workers canvassed the business district without giving proper classification to the members.

"The yearly report of the work of the Red Cross throughout the nation, which has just been issued," said Mr. More, "is remarkable in this respect—that not a single individual name is mentioned as worthy of special recognition. This was due to the fact that the entire country should be given credit and that the greatness of the work eclipsed individual achievement. Accordingly, as chairman of the roll call in Jackson county, I can only express by thanks collectively for the work done, the only reward being the satisfaction which each worker has in a good work well done."

The directors of the county association have re-elected J. H. Andrews as chairman of the relief committee to serve for the ensuing year. This week the directors are expected to appoint assistants in the various townships who will work under the supervision of Mr. Andrews. The Red Cross funds may be used for relief in legitimate cases such as can be served by the Red Cross organization. All chronic charity cases should be reported to the township trustees, but such cases where individual relief is necessary, such as in sickness, epidemics or disaster, together with all cases of soldiers relief and dependents, should be reported to Mr. Andrews who will have an investigation conducted and relief will be given by the township assistants according to the districts from which the requests come.

The Red Cross has also indorsed the work of the proposed county nurse under the supervision of the Red Cross health seal department, with the understanding that in case the funds secured through the sale of seals are not sufficient to continue the work of a nurse, the Red Cross will continue the services of such nurse at its own expense and supervision.

The directors have appointed Oscar B. Abel, president of the board, W. M. Welsh and Miss Katherine Jackson as a committee to look for a suitable applicant to take the Red Cross training course with the view of qualifying as visiting nurse in Jackson county. Anyone desiring to secure this position which will provide steady work, is asked to report to Mr. Abel who can furnish the necessary application blank.

SPLENDID PROGRAM OF MUSIC AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Special Selecting Presented by Soloists and Choir at Service Sunday Night.

A program of music of unusual merit was presented at the First Presbyterian church Sunday night. There were fourteen voices in the choir for the program. Albert Mesek is director of the choir, and he has received congratulations upon the splendid program which added to the impressiveness of the service.

Miss Frieda Aufderheide presented a beautiful violin solo, Andante from Violin Concerto by Mendelssohn in a most creditable manner. "Sing, O Heavens," by Tours was one of the selections by the choir which was heard by a deeply appreciative audience. Miss Rachel Barbour, a student at the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, who is spending the Christmas holidays here, sang a very beautiful solo, which gave her opportunity to demonstrate her wide range and interpretative ability. Accompaniments for the various numbers were furnished by Miss Omega Wheaton, organist, and Miss Doris Geile, piano.

side of the city and it is time that the public be notified that the talk is nothing but gossip unfounded.

One local merchant had relatives from Salem spend Sunday here with him and he was greatly surprised when they told him that it is rumored in that town that he was among several local merchants who had been arrested for profiteering. Such reports have come from other towns in the county and it is high time that such gossip be stopped. So far as is known no government agent has ever been here for that purpose and it is a known fact that no merchants have been arrested or accused by any government agent of profiteering.

Merchandise is sold by Seymour merchants at a closer margin than in any other city within a radius of several miles and that fact is supported by the many out-of-town people who are finding it very profitable to come to this city to do their shopping. The out-of-town business is growing larger each year and reached the climax over all other shopping days last Saturday. Local merchants are ready for the profiteering inspector at any time he sees fit to come to the city and it is believed he will find the reputable stores, in all lines of business, selling their merchandise and wares at a very reasonable profit, not withstanding the high prices that are demanded on the wholesale market.

It is likely that the rumors are the result of the visits by revenue collectors to check up merchandise under the luxury tax law. Headquarters have been established here and settlements are made at stated intervals.

flying start and scored with ease, leaving Jeffersonville trailing behind with the count 21 to 3. The second half was another "walk away," Seymour scoring fifty additional points to their opponents' eight. Tired and exhausted, the down-state team left the floor, defeated, 71 to 11.

The curtain-raiser between Freetown and the second team was exciting from start to finish. The first half ended 12 to 10 in favor of the visitors. With but two minutes to play the score was a tie, 15 to 15. Two goals by the Freetown players ended the game, 19 to 15.

TOTAL OF 87 ADDITIONS AT THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Hamilton-Saunders Meeting Closes
Sunday Night—Church Benefited by The Services.

With eighteen additions Sunday, making a total of eighty-seven during the special services, the revival at the Central Christian church, which has been in progress for three weeks, was closed Sunday night. The Rev. W. E. Carroll, pastor, expressed great satisfaction with the results of the services and believes that the church has been materially benefited. O. E. Hamilton, the evangelist, left Sunday night for his home in Mt. Grove, Mo., and H. H. Saunders, the singer, left for his home in Kingfisher, Okla., where he will spend Christmas. At the services Sunday contributions aggregating $537 were given for Mr. Hamilton. Mr. Saunders was employed on a salary basis and no special collection was taken for him.

On Sunday afternoon a special service was held for the new members of the church. Mr. Hamilton gave a talk to them relative to regularity of giving to church work and sixty-three of the new members pledged $1 a week to the current expenses. A total of $1,000 was pledged at that service and the amount was increased by the pledges of others who were unable to attend the afternoon service. Of the eighteen who joined the church Sunday, seventeen had never before been affiliated with any religious denomination.

The membership of the church is pleased with the services and highly commend Mr. Hamilton and Mr. Saunders for their untiring efforts and splendid service during the revival. Much of the success of the meeting was due to the work of the pastor upon whom many of the responsibilities fell.

ELEVEN BAPTIZED AT BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY

Christmas Themes Feature of the Day in All Departments of The Church.

Eleven candidates were baptized at the hour of the morning worship at the First Baptist Church, eight being from the Woodstock Baptist Church and three from the First Church. A delegation of about twenty-five people from the Woodstock church occupied reserved seats in the center of the auditorium. A large chorus choir of twenty-five voices rendered the music at the First Church, singing with great acceptance to the large congregation.

tions, "Silent Night," "The Birthday of a King," "Wake the Song" and "O, Little Town of Bethlehem." Mrs. Arthur P. Carter sang "The Day of Days" at the evening hour. The Sunday School service had programs related with the Christmas Message and the Primary Christmas program at 3 p. m. was largely attended, the little ones speaking Christmas pieces and singing Christmas songs. Santa Claus gave an orange and a box of candy to each little one present.

Rev. F. A. Hayward speaking in the morning on "The Coming King," suggested the possible influence of the captive Hebrews on the Eastern Magi. They were not mere curious investigators of a possible king but sincerely earnest in their quest for the Christ.

He fulfilled the kingly program and is today enthroned, not only in literature and art but in the great service of his people.

At night, in connection with the sermon on "The Child in the Manger," the message dealt with the importance the bible plays in childhood, the stress Christ gave to it in his love, his messages and his personal relationship with Childhood.

TO FRAME COMPROMISE

Hitchcock Calls Conference on Treaty Question.

By United Press

Washington, Dec. 22—Senator Hitchcock, administration leader, today invited a number of senators, both democrats and republicans, to a conference on the peace treaty. In inviting the senators, Hitchcock said, the conference was for framing a compromise, if possible, which would insure two-thirds of the members. The conference will be held during the recess, although a definite date has not yet been fixed.

Basketball Game.

A basketball game of unusual interest will be played at the Lutheran club house tonight when the L. S. A. S. team will play a quintet representing Concordia College. The Concordia team will play the Columbus Walthers League team here Friday night. The Concordia team will be selected from the following: Sil Toerne, guard on the Concordia first team, Ed Bucheimer, guard on the Concordia second team, Schwartzkopf, of Columbus, forward on the college team, Ahlbrand, Schroer, Hoefkamp and Rittman, of this city, who are home for their Christmas vacation. Toerne and Bucheimer are also spending the holidays here.

HEADACHE Caused by Acid-Stomach

Yes, indeed, more often than you think. Because ACID-STOMACH, starting with indigestion, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, bloating and gas, if not checked, will eventually affect every vital organ of the body. Severe, blinding, splitting headaches are, therefore, of frequent occurrence as a result of this set condition.

Take EATONIC. It quickly banishes acid-stomach with its sour bloating, pain and gas. It aids digestion—helps the stomach get full strength from every mouthful of food you eat. Millions of people are miserable, weak, sick and ailing because of ACID-STOMACH. Poisons, created by partly digested food charged with acid, are absorbed into the blood and distributed throughout the entire system. This often causes rheumatism, biliousness, cirrhosis of the liver, heart trouble, ulcers and even cancer of the stomach. It robs its victims of their health, undermines the strength of the most vigorous.

CHAPTER X.

The Loss of Rene.

There was the echo of an oath, a harsh, cruel laugh, the crash of planking, a strange, half-human cry of fright from the negro—that was all. The sudden violence of the blow must have hurled me high into the air, for I struck the water clear of both boats, and so far out in the stream that when I came again struggling to the surface I was in the full sweep of the current, against which I had to struggle desperately. In the brief second that intervened between Sam's shout of warning and the crash of the two boats I had seen almost nothing—only that black, menacing hulk, looming up between us and the shore, more like a shadow than a reality. Yet now, fighting to keep my head above water and not to be swept away, I was able to realize instantly what had occurred. I had been mistaken; Kirby had not fled down the river; instead he had craftily waited this chance to attack us at a disadvantage. Convinced that we would decide to make use of the rowboat, which he had left uninjured for that very purpose, and that we would venture forth just so soon as the night became dark enough, he had hidden the stolen craft in some covert along shore to await our coming. Then he sprang on us, as the tiger springs on his prey. He had calculated well, for the blunt prow of the speeding keelboat had struck us squarely, crushing in the sides of our frail craft and flinging me headlong.

What had been the fate of the others I could not for the moment determine. The darkness shadowed everything, the bulk of the keelboat alone appearing in the distance, and that shapelessly outlined. The craft bore no light, and had it not been for a voice speaking I doubt if I could have located even that. The rowboat could not be distinguished—it must have sunk, or else drifted away, a helpless wreck. The first sound my ears caught, echoing across the water, was an oath, and a question: "By—! a good job; do you see that fellow anywhere?"

"Naw," the response a mere growl. "He's a goner, I reckon; never knowed what hit him, jedgin' from the way he upended it."

"Well, then he isn't likely to bother us any more. Suppose he was the white man?"

"Sure he was; it was the nigger who was up ahead. We hit him, an' he dropped in 'tween their boats, an' went down like a stone. He never yeeped but just onct, when I first gripped that girl. I don't reckon as she was hurt at all; leastwise I never aimed fer ter hurt her none."

"Has she said anything?"

"Not a d—d twister; maybe she's fainted. I dunno, but that's the way females do. What shall I do with the bird, Kirby?"

"Oh, hold on to her there awhile, long as she's quiet. I'm going to try the steam again, and get outside into the big river. H—, man, but this hasn't been such a bad night's work."

The steam began to sizz, settling swiftly into a rhythmic chugging, as the revolving wheel began to churn up the water astern. Confident of being safely hidden by the darkness, I permitted the current to bear me downward, my muscles aching painfully from the struggle, and with no other thought in my mind except to keep well out of sight of the occupants of the boat. To be perceived by them and overtaken in the water meant certain death, while if they continued to believe that I had actually sunk beneath the surface, some future carelessness on their part might yield me an unexpected opportunity to serve Rene. The few words overheard had made sufficiently plain the situation. Poor Sam had already found freedom in death, crushed between the two colliding boats, but the girl had been gassed in time and hauled uninjured aboard the heavier craft. This had been the object of the attack—to gain possession of her. Very evidently I had not been seen closely enough to be recognized by Kirby. In a measure this afforded me a decided advantage, provided we ever encountered each other again—and I meant that we should. The account between us was not closed by this incident; far from it. Where in that black water, struggling to keep afloat, while being swept resistlessly out into the river, with no immediate object before me except to remain concealed by the veil of darkness, I resolved solemnly to myself that this affair should never end until it was ended right. In that moment of decision I cared not at all for Rene Beaucaire's drop of negro blood, nor for the fact that she was a slave in her master's hands. To my mind she was but a woman, a sweet, lovable, girlish woman, in the unrestrained power of a brute, and dependent alone on me for rescue. That was enough; I cared for nothing more.

Seymour's Christmas Store for Men and Boys

With silent strokes I waited patiently until the steady chugging of the engine grew faint in the distance, and then finally ceased entirely.

Uncertain which way to turn, and conscious of a strange lassitude, I made no struggle to reach land, but permitted myself to be borne downward in the grip of the water. Suddenly something drifted against my body, a black, ill-defined object, tossing about on the swell of the waves, and instinctively I grasped at it, recognizing instantly the shell of our wrecked boat. It was all awash, a great hole stove in its side well forward, and so filled with water the added weight of my body would have sunk it instantly. Yet the thing remained buoyant enough to float, and I clung to its stern, thankful even for this slight help.

There was no occasion for fear, although I became aware that the sweep of the current was steadily bearing us farther out toward the center of the broad stream, and soon felt convinced that escape from my predicament would be impossible until after daylight. The struggle to keep afloat was no longer necessary, and my head sank in relief on the hands gripping at the boat's stern, while we floated silently on through the black mystery.

Suddenly the wrecked boat's bow grated against something immovable; then became fixed, the stern swinging slowly about, until it also caught, and I could feel the full volume of down-pouring water against my body. The blindly floating boat had drifted upon a snag, seemingly the major portion of a tree, now held by the major spit of sand. I struggled vainly in an attempt to release the grip which held us, but the force of the current had securely wedged the boat's bow beneath a limb, a bare leafless tentacle, making all my efforts useless. I found a submerged branch on which to stand, gripped the boat desperately to prevent being swept away, and waited for the dawn.

It seemed a long while coming, and never did man gaze on a more dismal, ghastly scene than was revealed to me by those first gray gleams dimly showing in the far east. All about stretched utter desolation; wherever my eyes turned the vista was the same—a wide stretch of restless brown water surging and leaping past, bounded by low-lying shores, forlorn and deserted. How far I had aimlessly drifted downstream during the night was a mere matter of conjecture. I possessed no knowledge of where I was. Each bank of the river appeared about equally bare and desolate, entirely devoid of promise. However, I chose the west shore for my experiment, as the current seemed less strong in that direction, and was about to plunge in, determined to fight a way across, when my eyes suddenly detected a faint wreath of smoke curling up into the pale sky above a headland far to the southward. As I stared at this it became black and distinct, tossed about in the wind. I watched intently, clinging to my support, scarcely trusting my eyesight, while that first wisp deepened into a cloud, advancing slowly toward me. There was no longer doubt of what it was—unquestionably some steamer was pushing its course upstream. Even before my ears could detect the far-off chug of the engine the boat itself rounded the sharp point of the headland and came forth into full view, heading out toward the middle of the river in a search for deeper water.

LABOR TROUBLES HIT SANTA CLAUS' TOY TRIP

While Shortage is Found in Some Lines There is an Over-supply in Others.

By United Press
Indianapolis, Dec. 22—Labor upheavals hit Santa Claus' toy shop a staggering blow this year.

Prices were higher this season than ever before with the possible exception of 1918, according to Indianapolis dealers. But the buying public has "carried on" and as much money passed over the counters of the toy departments as last year.

While there was a shortage of many kinds of playthings, there were over-supplies of others.

The increased cost of labor and transportation even hit the Christmas tree. There is an abundant supply of evergreens on the Indiana market today, with retail prices ranging from 50 cents to $2.50. Holly is also higher at $5 to $5.50, while mistletoe is quoted at 40 cents a pound, the same as in 1918.

NO CASES SET DOWN FOR TRIAL THIS WEEK

Judge Cox and Other Court Officials Will Take Week Vacation For Christmas Holidays.

James A. Cox, judge of the Jackson circuit court has announced that there will be no court this week unless some special case should arise that would demand the court's immediate attention.

The judge and court officials are planning on a week's vacation for the Christmas holidays. No cases have been set for trial until Monday, December 29.

HOME MADE RECIPE CATARRH AND COLDS

Nonexpensive—Cut This Out.

Thousands are making this beneficial remedy at home and anyone who has catarrh or a cold can do the same.

Ask your druggist for three quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcline and pour it into a pint bottle, then fill the bottle with water that has been boiled.

Gargle the throat as directed and snuff or spray the liquid into the nostrils twice daily. It's a simple way to get rid of cold and catarrh and keeps the nasal passage and throat so clean and healthy that germs of flu or any other germs will have a hard time gaining a foothold.

WAS NERVOUS AND RUN DOWN

RESTORED TO NORMAL
HEALTH BY BIO-FEREN

"I feel I owe you people a world of gratitude for the benefit I have received in using your wonderful remedy—Bio-feren Tablets, which have completely restored me to normal conditions," says Joseph E. Webb of Muncie, Indiana.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest and quickest remedy for nervous, run down, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through the druggists and is not at all expensive.

Take two after each meal and one at bed time, and after seven days take one after each meal and one at bed time until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if you are not in better health—if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen minded, yes, twice as much as you did before, the druggist who sold you the tablets will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

All druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand, or can easily get it for you.

Seven a day for seven days—Wonderful results.

MANY SHOPLIFTERS AT WORK IN INDIANAPOLIS

More Women Arrested There on That Charge This Year Than Ever Before.

Indianapolis, Dec. 22—Milady Raffles is causing much trouble for the police of the Hoosier capital during the holiday shopping rush.

Fashionably dressed women from out-state towns have made Indianapolis a rendezvous, according to members of the police department and have launched shop-lifting operations on a large scale.

Some of the better known figures of the Indianapolis underworld in the meantime have disappeared from the city and are believed to be operating elsewhere temporarily.

Two women were arrested here recently in the basement of a downtown department store. They are said to have confessed robbing five stores here.

Detectives claim the two carried shopping bags into which they dropped various articles including silk bloomers, books, lingerie, and silk handkerchiefs.

More women have been arrested for similar offenses this year than ever before in the history of the police department.

Paul Hoffmann, of Miami University, Oxford, O., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hoffmann, Tipton street.

ASK any doughboy who was "over there" and he will tell you that American railroads are the best in the world.

He saw the foreign roads—in England and France, the best in Europe—and in other Continental countries—and he knows.

The part railroads have played in the development of the United States is beyond measure.

American railroads have achieved high standards of public service by far-sighted and courageous investment of capital, and by the constant striving of managers and men for rewards for work well done.

We have the best railroads in the world—we must continue to have the best.

But they must grow.

To the $20,000,000,000 now invested in our railroads, there will have to be added in the next few years, to keep pace with the nation's business, billions more for additional tracks, stations and terminals, cars and engines, electric power houses and trains, automatic signals, safety devices, the elimination of grade crossings—and for reconstruction and engineering economies that will reduce the cost of transportation.

To attract to the railroads in the future the investment funds of many thrifty citizens, the directing genius of the most capable builders and managers, and the skill and loyalty of the best workmen—in competition with other industries bidding for capital, managers and men—the railroad industry must hold out fair rewards to capital, to managers and to the men.

American railroads will continue to set world standards and adequately serve the Nation's needs if they continue to be built and operated on the American principle of rewards for work well done.

This advertisement is published by the Association of Railway Executives

Those desiring information concerning the railroad situation may obtain literature by writing to The Association of Railway Executives, 61 Broadway, New York.

The railways of the United States are more than one third, nearly one half, of all the railways of the world. They carry a yearly traffic so much greater than that of any other country that there is really no basis for comparison. Indeed, the traffic of any two nations may be combined and still it does not approach the commerce of America borne upon American railways.

United States Senator Cushman

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bailey were called to Connorsville Sunday on account of the critical illness of the latter's mother. Mr. Bailey returned to this city Sunday evening and Mrs. Bailey remained with her mother.

Miss Priscilla Fischbach, who is instructor in the domestic department of the Freemont, O., schools, arrived here today to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. B. E. E. Fischbach.
